14.20 1st Round: The Working Groups and the state of play

- 30 minutes session in which the FEPS YAN members explain to the others within 4 randomly selected breakout rooms where their respective groups are with their papers, what are the main findings and how they plan to arrive to a successful end of the writing process ahead of the November seminar. Sharing know-how – advising one another very welcome.

14.50 Looking into the future – working in the ad hoc WGs

- Explanation of the objectives and methodology

15.00 2nd Round: Help us to design next the FEPS YAN call for members:

- What should be the requirements to become a FEPS YANnie?
- How would you explain FEPS YAN network in the next call?
- What should FEPS underline in the expectations?
- Do you have any suggestion regarding the abstracts or the selection process?

15.30 3rd Round: What are your expectations for the Brussels Seminar?

- What are, in your opinion, the main priorities for the on-site seminar?
- After one year and a half of online meetings, what have you missed the most of the physical ones?
- Taking into account that Friday and Saturday are not the busiest days in Brussels... is there any guest you would like to invite as a speaker to the seminar?

16.00 4th Round: Main Outcomes + Dissemination opportunities

- Representing your working group, what are the main outcomes of your research paper?
- What can FEPS and RI do and what can you do to disseminate the paper once it will be published?
- Do the other members of the breakout room have any other suggestion?

16.30 Debrief from the 4 rounds and follow up discussion

16.50 Presentation of the FEPS YAN Platform - Plenary
